Re: Planning for Indiana's Future presentation – Reminder
Date: April 24, 2015

The Division of Disability and Rehabilitative Services (DDRS) invites DDRS providers, stakeholders, families and participants to attend a presentation titled "Planning for Indiana's Future," on April 28, 2015 from 9 a.m. to noon at the Indiana State Library located at 315 W. Ohio St. in Indianapolis or via a live webinar.

At the presentation DDRS and our partners at the National Association of State Directors of Developmental Disabilities Services (NASDDDS) will provide national and federal perspectives for our stakeholders of state service systems for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities. Indiana is at a pivotal stage: having closed our institutions, we now want to think about what we want our community service systems to look like in the future.

This forum will be an opportunity for interested individuals to help identify key priorities for Indiana's community service systems moving forward. Webinar information and attendance registration is available in the April 16, 2015 announcement on the DDRS' Announcements page. We invite you to join us as we begin discussions about exciting systems changes in Indiana!
